The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The claims are deemed allowable because the prior art does not teach or reasonably suggest a method of pumping a fluid which comprises exciting an excitable medium in a housing to produce a standing wave therein and deforming the housing, and providing a pumped fluid to a pumping cavity in communication with the housing such that the deformation generates volume changes in the pumping cavity.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
